

INFANTS AND THE LAW

Legal and Mental Health perspectives on working with infants and families in Childrens Court

The Queensland Branch of the Australia Association for Infant Mental Health is proud to present an educational seminar for professionals working with families in contact with the child protection system.

Our expert presenters:

Fleur Ward: Fleur is a lawyer who works as both Special Counsel at Coulter Legal and also, holds the position of Senior Litigation and Education Lead at Djirra (Aboriginal Family Violence Legal Service) in Victoria. Fleur is a Law Institute of Victoria Accredited Specialist in Children's Law, and holds a Masters of Mental Health Science (Child Psychotherapy) from Monash University.

Dr Nicole Milburn: Nicole is a Clinical Psychologist who has been conducting assessments of Child Protection clients for more than 25 years in public and private practice, in addition to providing psychotherapy to infants, children, adolescents, families and adults.

Dr Michelle Fryer: Michelle is an Infant, Child, Adolescent and Adult Psychiatrist and has practised as a consultant psychiatrist since July 2002. She has a diverse range of clinical experience across private practice, and public outpatient and inpatient settings. Since 2014, she has provided medico-legal assessments, predominantly for the Family Court.

When: Saturday 28th June 2025, 8.45am – 3.30pm

Where: Psychology Clinic, QUT Kelvin Grove (44 Musk Avenue, Kelvin Grove, QLD)

OR via live stream (this event will not be recorded)

Cost: AAIMH members: $140

Non-members: $250

(AAIMH membership is $110, so why not join?)

Registration: via <https://www.trybooking.com/DBVDT>

Registrations close Wednesday 25th June 2025

Light morning tea provided; Kelvin Grove Village Markets will be running outside the venue and lunch can be purchased there.